

Let's Honor Bullying Prevention Month,
Celebrate Red Ribbon Week, and GO PINK
by dressing up
October 23rd - October 31st

CONTEST! Be creative by coloring, drawing, or painting a picture of showing ways of helping others and preventing bullying! Label the picture with your name, grade, and teacher and bring your artwork to THE CELEBRATION STORE in the red circle during the mornings of October 23rd - October 31st. The 3 best pictures from each grade will be displayed in the cafeteria!

THE CELEBRATION STORE: Open each morning of Red Ribbon Week between 7:30am - 8:00am, the PTA will sell Spirit Sticks ($1), Verde shirts ($10), new Not Bullying Allowed!!! shirts ($10), and other assorted goodies ($2-$4) for students to purchase.

Thursday, October 23rd: Love Yourself. Be Drug Free. Wear Red to School Day!

Friday, October 24th: GO PINK! Wear pink from head to toe for breast cancer awareness month!

Monday, October 27th: Sock It To Drugs! Wear your crazy and mismatched socks to school!

Tuesday, October 28th: My Future Is Bright, So I Don't Do Drugs Day! Wear sunglasses!

Wednesday, October 29th: Kindness - Pass It On! Let's pass kind notes to your teachers, staff, and classmates and make someone happy!

Thursday, October 30th: Lei Off Drugs Day! Wear your Hawaiian lei to show your aloha spirit and say no to drugs!

Friday, October 31st: Verde Vikings Show Good Character! Wear your Verde attire or dress as a storybook character.

Thank you Student Council for the dress up ideas listed above!

Parents/Guardians, we encourage you to visit www.kidshealth.org with your children to research and discuss these subject matters in more detail.
